Description:

About the Author Adauzo Ijeoma Ubah is a British born Nigerian. Her birthday is on the 9th of June. She obtained her B.Sc. (Hons) and M.Sc. (Hons) in Psychology and is currently training to obtain her doctorate in psychotherapeutic counselling psychology. She is a member of the British Psychologists Society. She have worked as a medical social welfare officer for over two years in Nigeria. She is a motivational speaker which is mainly based on marriage, family life, and general well-being. She has flare for listening to people's problem and giving them solution to it which is why she is pursuing her doctorate in counselling. Her interests and hobbies are writing, reading, watching television, music, singing, and travelling. She has been to some parts of the world in Europe, Africa, and Asia. She enjoys travelling to new places to learn more about the people and their life style. She writes books not because she knows it all but because she likes to share her knowledge with people. She have come to realise that in writing, you get to learn more and of course she loves learning new things on daily basis. Her books are not stream lined to any particular subject, they are cover different areas. Her books usual reflect on Psychology and Christianity. She is a stong believer in the teachings of Christ. She is married to her best friend, Charles Azuka Ubah whose encouragement has led to the publishing of some of her write-ups. She is currently living in London where she is studying. Adauzo Ijeoma Ubah is a British born Nigerian. Her birthday is on the 9th of June. She obtained her B.Sc. (Hons) and M.Sc.
